[6]　次の英文を読んで、下の各質問に答えなさい。(26 点)

Disneyland is a large amusement park with many workers ①(do) many different ②kinds of work. The people who work at Disneyland are ③(call) casts. They give *dreamlike experience to all *generations. It is not surprising that there are many good stories about the casts. Some of these stories make us happy.

One story is about a *guest [　ア　] ④[visit] Disneyland and *accidentally dropped her ring in a pond. The pond was big and there were many people in boats *floating on the pond. Though she was sure the ring was lost forever, she ⑤[tell] one of the casts about her ring. The ring was important to her and she was very sad about ⑥that. ⑦[enjoy / her day / difficult / was / to / it] at Disneyland. Finally, just as she was leaving the park, the cast ⑧[come] *running up to her and said, "I ⑨[find] it! I ⑨[find] your ring!"
She asked, "⑩[it / you / how / find / did]?" The smiling cast *replied, "Disneyland is a magic kingdom!"

Another story shows what kind of place Disneyland is. The casts have to pick up *trash on the ground. When people ask them, "What are you doing?", they reply, "We're picking up pieces of dreams that have fallen out of people's hands."

These are just two short stories [　イ　] happened at Disneyland, but they show that this amusement park is special. The casts have their *enthusiasm and their kindness, and their *belief in "magic" for their work.
