9 次のある授業中の会話文を読み、設問に答えなさい。(30点)

Mr.Sato : Good-morning, everyone! Hi, how are you today? How about you, Naoki?

Naoki : I'm good, and you, Mr.Sato?

Mr.Sato : I'm happy because I caught a lot of fish yesterday and had a good time. By the way, have you ever heard the word, ①saying, everyone? If you know it, please raise your hand. Then, Hana, please say one.

Hana : ②"Time flies," right?

Mr.Sato : That's right. It says that time goes by so quickly, so we mustn't *waste our time. A saying is a short sentence that people often use to give you some advice and tell you important things in your life. Today we will learn a little about sayings. Well, Ken, do you know this one, "The early bird catches the *worm?"

Ken : Yes, I do. Getting up early is good for our health and we can *make use of morning time, for example reading a book or taking a walk, right?

Mr.Sato : Right, but ③I don't think you understand this saying much because you are often late for school. (All students laugh at him.) Well, how about this one, "(④)?" Then, Naoki, please *explain it.

Naoki : We should see things with our own eyes and understand them, right?

Mr.Sato : Exactly. These days many people use the Internet to get information and believe it easily, but some of the information is (⑤) the fact. So we need to think about things *by ourselves and understand them *properly. Well, this is the last saying. Do you know this one, "Don't cry over *spilt milk?" (It gets quiet.)

Nobody knows? It means that the thing which is done once never returns. In Japanese you have a similar saying, Fukusui-Bonni-Kaerazu. I'll explain it more. There was once a great man in China. He was always reading books and didn't work at all. Finally, his wife didn't like him and left him. When the king told him to come and he*got promoted a few years later, she tried to return to him. But he *refused it. Then he told her this saying. It has been several years since *social media began to be popular. Actually some people make good use of it as a useful tool and others write *heartless words on it. So let's think again if we will *hurt someone or not before we write messages. We can't go back to the past and do the things again. Do you understand?

Class : Yes, I understand.

Mr.Sato : Good! That's all for today! Well, I will give you a special test about sayings tomorrow. So study about sayings we learned now this evening.

Ken : Oh, come on! You said we shouldn't hurt anyone by ⑥heartless words, didn't you?

(Mr.Sato laughs.)

(注) waste : ~を浪費する worm : ミミズ make use of : ~を利用する
 explain : ~を説明する by ourselves : 自分で properly : 正しく
 spilt : こぼれた got promoted : 出世した refused : 断った social media : インスタグラム、フェイスブック、ツイッターなどの SNS heartless : 心無い hurt : 傷つける
